4 of 2014 s. 22

16.—(1) Where a person is convicted by a court of any offence for contravention of section 15, and it appears from the evidence of Chief Seeds Certification Officer, inspector, sampler or analyst that some other person, being a farmer or a person who ordinarily is expected to use seeds which are the subject of the offence committed, has suffered material loss or personal injury in consequence of the offence committed and that substantial compensation is, in the opinion of the court, recoverable by that person by civil suit, the court may, in its discretion and in addition to any other lawful punishment, order the person convicted to pay to that other person such compensation, in kind or in money, as the court deems fair and reasonable.

(2) Where a person is convicted of any offence under section 15, the power conferred on the court by subsection (1) shall be deemed to include a power to award compensation to any purchaser of any seeds in good faith in relation to which the offence was committed for the loss of crops that ordinarily would have been grown or such other pecuniary loss that is directly or indirectly caused if the seed failed to grow or is destroyed or otherwise declared to be unfit for use.

PART IV REGISTRATION OF SEEDS DEALERS

Registration of seed seller
Act No.
4 of 2014 s. 23

17.—(1) A person shall not deal in seed business in Tanzania, unless he is registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) A person who imports, exports, produces, processes, distributes or sells shall, before commencing the business, register with the Institute.

(3) A person, who owns or operates a seed processing factory or seed testing laboratory shall, before commencing business, obtain certificate of registration from the Institute.

(4) An application for registration under this section shall be made to the Institute in the form and manner prescribed in the regulations.

(5) The Chief Seeds Certification Officer shall, after receipt of application and upon being-

- (a) satisfied that the applicant complies with the prescribed requirements, enter the name, address and principal business address of the applicant in the appropriate register as a registered seed dealer and issue certificate of registration in the prescribed form; or
- (b) dissatisfied that the applicant complies with the prescribed requirements, require the applicant to correct the defects in the application or refuse to register the applicant.

(6) The Institute shall, if it deems necessary for the purposes of consideration of the application, make inspection on such holdings, warehousing, storage and other facilities which the applicant proposes to use in the business of a seed dealer.

(7) Any registration under this section shall, unless cancelled, be valid until the expiry of time provided for in the registration certificate.

(8) A person who contravenes preceding provisions of this section commits an offence and on conviction, shall be liable to a fine of not less than five million shillings and not more than ten million or to imprisonment for a term of not less than three years and not more than five years or to both.

[s. 15]

Issuance of certificate of registration

18.-(1) The Director shall, after granting the registration, issue a certificate of registration to a seed dealer subject to such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Minister.

(2) A registration certificate granted shall be conspicuously displayed on the business premises of a registered seed dealer.

[s. 16]

Cancellation of certificate of
registration

19.-(1) The Director may, where he is satisfied that any conditions subject to which a seed dealer was registered have not been complied with, cancel the certificate of registration issued to a seed dealer.

(2) The Director shall not cancel the registration of a seed dealer under this section unless the dealer has been given an opportunity to show cause as to why the registration should not be cancelled.

[s. 17]

Appeals

20. A person who is not satisfied by the decision of the Director for refusal of registration, cancellation of registration or permit under the provisions of this Act may, within thirty days, appeal to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

[s. 18]

Prohibition

21.—(1) A person shall not—

- (a) import, export, produce, process, distribute or sell seeds unless he is registered as such under this Act; or
- (b) test, process or multiply seeds otherwise than in a registered laboratory seed processing factory or a seed multiplication farm.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), this Act shall not be construed as preventing the sale of quality declared seeds as such to a neighbour farmer, whereby such seeds are grown by a smallholder farmer for use as seeds in his own farm.

(3) Where a registered seed dealer contracts any person to import, export, produce, process, distribute or sell seeds, that person shall be bound by the terms and conditions provided for under this Act.

[s. 19]

Duty to keep records

22.—(1) Every producer, processor, seller or distributor of seeds shall have the duty to keep within his premises, detailed records, by lot, of seed produced, purchased, sold, tested, and labelled or treated and such records shall be provided to the inspector whenever requested.

(2) A person who contravenes the provisions of this section, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one million shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both.

[s. 20]

Approval and listing of varieties

23.—(1) The Minister shall upon advice by the National Seeds Committee approve any new plant variety.

(2) The Director shall establish and maintain a national catalogue of approved plant varieties and shall cause to be entered therein varieties imported, sold or distributed in Tanzania.

(3) Subject to the recommendations of the National Seeds Committee, the Director shall publish in the Gazette the seed varieties entered in the national catalogue.

[s. 21]

Powers of inspectors

24.—(1) An inspector may, at any reasonable time, enter any place where he reasonably believes there is any seed to which this Act applies and may open any package found therein that he has reasons to believe contains such seed and may sample the same for the purpose of ensuring that the provisions of this Act or of any regulations or orders made under this Act are being complied with.

(2) An inspector may, for the purposes of securing compliance with the provisions of this Act or of any regulations or orders made under this Act or for the purposes of detecting and establishing any breach of any such provisions-

- (a) conduct field inspection and or take samples of any seed found in any package or place and submit such samples to the official seeds testing laboratory for testing; or
- (b) require any person to produce for inspection or for the purpose of obtaining copies thereof or extracts therefrom, any books, shipping bills, bills of lading or other documents or papers relating to any seed to which this Act applies.

(3) The owner or person in charge of any premises described under this section and every person found therein, shall give to an inspector all reasonable assistance in his power to enable the inspector to carry out his duties and functions under this Act.

(4) An inspector may where he has reasonable grounds, that any of the provisions of this Act or regulations or orders made under this Act has been violated, seize, issue or stop sale of the seeds or package by means of or in relation to which the violation was committed:

Provided that, any seeds or package seized or placed under stop sale pursuant to this subsection shall not be detained after-

- (a) the provisions of this Act and the regulations and orders have, in the opinion of the Inspector, been complied with; or
- (b) the expiration of three months from the day of seizure or stop sale, unless before that date proceedings have been instituted in respect of the violation, in which event the seeds or package may be detained until the proceedings are finally concluded.

(5) An inspector shall, before inspection of the premises, take such steps as are reasonably practical to afford the owner of any seeds an opportunity to be present while an inspection under this Act is being carried out.

[s. 22]

Substandard
seeds
Act No.
4 of 2014 s. 24

25.—(1) Where an inspector is satisfied that any seed regulated by this Act is unfit for intended purpose or the provisions of this Act, he may-

- (a) affix to that seed a mark, seal or other designation to stop selling such seed or seed lot;
- (b) without compensation, destroy or dispose of that seed in any way at owner's cost; or
- (c) take such seed to a post-entry quarantine station for further inspection, treatment and disposal.

(2) An inspector shall, before destroying or disposing of any seed in any way other than in accordance with subsection (1)-

- (a) record or cause to be recorded-
 - (i) a description or other particulars of the seed or seed lot;

- (ii) description of premises where the seed was found;
- (iii) any witness available and his signature; and
- (iv) the grounds upon which his decision have been made.

(b) forward a report containing particulars stipulated in paragraph (a) to the Chief Seeds Certification Officer.

[s. 22A]

Obstruction of inspectors

26. A person, being the owner or person entrusted with the charge and custody of any seed lot who-

- (a) refuses to allow the inspector to take a sample of the seed from any premises which he is authorised under this Act to take a sample or who otherwise wilfully delays or obstructs the inspector; or
- (b) wilfully makes false or misleading statement either verbally or in writing to the inspector or other official engaged in carrying out his duties or functions under this Act, commits an offence.

[s. 23]

Analysis of sample

27. An analyst, who receives a sample taken under the provisions of this Act from an inspector, shall as soon as is practicable analyse the same, and shall give a report in the prescribed form specifying the result of the analysis.

[s. 24]

Recognition of seed certification agencies of foreign countries
Act No. 3 of 2020 s. 80

28. The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Institute and by notice published in the Gazette, recognise for the purposes of this Act, any seed certification agency established in any foreign country.

[s. 24A]

Tempering with samples

29. Any person, who fraudulently tampers or interferes with any seed lot that any sample of it is taken or submitted for analysis under this Act does not correctly represent the seed lot, or fraudulently tampers or interferes with any sample taken or submitted for analysis under this Act, commits an offence.

[s. 25]

PART V MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Offences and penalties
Act No.
3 of 2020 s. 81

(2) The court may, in addition to any penalty imposed under this Act, order any article in respect of which such offence has been committed or which has been used for the commission of such offence to be forfeited.

(3) The Minister shall be responsible for the disposal of anything forfeited to the Government under subsection (2).

(4) Where an offence has been committed and by reason of that commission a person has suffered a direct damage or loss of his property, the court may, in addition to the penalty provided for under subsection (1), order the offender to compensate the person who has suffered such loss or damage.

(5) The court may, in the case of a persistent offender, order, in addition to penalties provided for under this section, the withdrawal of any permit or, certificate of registration or any other right held by the offender under this Act.

[s. 26]

Offences by body
corporate or firm

31.—(1) Any act which if done by an individual would be an offence against this Act or any regulations or orders made under this Act shall, if done by a body corporate, be an offence by every director, secretary and manager thereof unless he proves that the offence was committed without his consent or connivance and that he exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his functions in that capacity and to all circumstances.

(2) Where an offence against this Act or any regulations or orders made under this Act has been committed by a partner in a firm, every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was partner in that firm, or was purporting to act in that capacity, shall be deemed to have committed that offence unless he proves that the offence was committed without his consent and or connivance and he exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his functions in that capacity and to all the circumstances.

[s. 27]

Evidence

32.—(1) Any document purporting to be a report under the hand of an analyst appointed under the provisions of this Act, on any sample duly submitted to him for analysis and report, may be admitted in evidence in any civil or criminal proceedings relating to the seed sampled without further proof, and shall be sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein unless the defendant or person charged requires that the analyst be called as a witness.

(2) Where the defendant or person charged requires that the analyst be called as a witness, he shall pay any reasonable costs incurred by such analyst in attending the trial.

(3) A sample which has been taken in the prescribed manner by an inspector shall, unless proved otherwise be deemed to be of the same composition to have the same qualities and to possess in all other respects the same properties of the seed lot from which it was drawn.

[s. 28]

Limitation

33. Proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act or under any subsidiary legislation made under this Act shall not be instituted after the expiry of two years from the date when the subject matter of the proceedings arose, if the offence is a misrepresentation of the plant variety name or purity of the plant variety.

[s. 29]

Indemnity
Cap. 16

34. Without prejudice to the provisions of section 284A of the Penal Code, matter done by any person exercising or purporting to exercise any function under this Act or under any subsidiary legislation made under this Act shall not if done in good faith in the execution or purported execution of the functions under any of the provisions of this Act or such subsidiary legislation, subject any such person to any action liability, claim or demand whatsoever.

[s. 30]

Exempted sales

35.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to a sale, offer or exposure for sell, where such sale is made by a bailiff, court broker or other officer in the course of executing any order or process of a court.

(2) The term “sell” under subsection (1) shall not be construed to mean selling of seeds or anything, which otherwise does not meet quality standards prescribed under this Act or regulations made under this Act.

[s. 31]
