REGISTRATION OF VOTERS

PART I

QUALIFICATIONS AND DISQUALIFICATIONS FOR REGISTERING AS VOTERS AND VOTING

Qualification
for registration
Acts Nos.
8 of 1995 s. 4
13 of 2004 s. 9

14.-(1) A person, other than a citizen of Tanzania who has attained the age of eighteen years and who is not disqualified by this Act or by any other written law, shall not be entitled to be registered as a voter under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), and subject to the proof of age, any Tanzanian not disqualified by this Act or any other written law, who on or before the date of election shall attain the age of eighteen years, shall be entitled to be registered as a voter under this Act.

[s. 10]

Disqualification
from registration

15.-(1) A person shall not be qualified for registration or be registered as a voter under this Act if he is -

- (a) under a declaration of allegiance to some country other than Tanzania;
- (b) under any law in force in Tanzania, he is adjudged or otherwise declared to be of unsound mind or is detained as a criminal lunatic or is detained during the pleasure of the President;
- (c) under sentence of death imposed by any court in Tanzania or is under a sentence of imprisonment exceeding six months imposed by a court or as substituted by competent authority for some other sentence imposed by such a court; or
- (d) disqualified from registering as a voter under the provisions of this Act or any other law in force relating to offences connected with any election.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1)(c)-

- (a) two or more sentences that are required to be served consecutively shall be regarded as separate sentences if none of them exceeds six months, but if any one of them exceeds six months, they shall be regarded as one sentence; and
- (b) account shall not be taken of a sentence of imprisonment imposed as an alternative to, or in default of, the payment of a fine.

(3) Where any person registered under this Act ceases to be qualified for registration as a voter, his name shall be deleted from the Register:

Provided that, a name shall not be deleted from a Register, except in accordance with the provisions of Parts III and IV of this Chapter or on a report of a court that such person has been guilty of a practice which disqualified that person from registering, or voting.

(4) A person shall not be registered as a voter in more than one constituency or in more than one polling district in a constituency.

[s. 11]

Provisional
Voters'
Register
Act No.
13 of 2004 s.10

16.-(1) The Commission shall, for the purpose of preparation of a Permanent National Voters' Register, establish a Provisional Voters' Register.

(2) The Provisional Voters' Register shall be used for-

- (a) displaying for inspection by the public;
- (b) amendment regarding change of residence or any other particulars of the voter;
- (c) making objection against registration of any voter;
- (d) inclusion or deletion of the name of the voter in the Register; and
- (e) effecting any other correction or amendment as may be required under this Act.

[s. 11A]

Register of Voters
Acts Nos.
4 of 2000 Sch.
13 of 2004 s..11
and 12

17.–(1) Subject to this section, there shall, for purposes of this Act, be a Permanent National Voters’ Register for the United Republic, which shall be in such parts, chapters or other divisions as the Commission shall determine.

(2) The Director of Elections shall keep, maintain and update the Register established under subsection (1).

(3) Every Register of voters shall consist of names of all persons who are registered as voters in a polling district.

(4) The Register shall show relative to every registered voter, the number of the voter’s card issued to such voter, the sex of the voter and address at which the voter ordinarily resides and such other particulars as the Commission may direct.

(5) The Commission shall be a custodian of the register established under subsection (1).

(6) The Commission shall make regulations prescribing anything which is to be prescribed or directing any other matter to be done by any person for the purposes of giving full effect to the provisions of this section and of establishing, keeping and maintaining the Permanent National Voters Register.

(7) The Director of Elections may, by regulations, give directions to the Registration Officer or Assistant Registration Officer on matters relating to registration of voters, contents of a Voter’s Register or any other related matters.

[s. 12]

Registration of voters in Tanzania
Zanzibar
Acts Nos.
8 of 1995 s.4A
13 of 2004 s.13

18.–(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 17, for purposes of the conduct of Parliamentary and Presidential elections in Tanzania Zanzibar, the law relating to the registration of voters and to the Register of voters for elections to the House of Representatives of Zanzibar shall mutatis mutandis be the law for the registration of voters and the Register of voters in Tanzania Zanzibar for the purpose of this Act.

(2) The Commission shall register any person in Tanzania Zanzibar who is only entitled to be registered as a voter for election of the President of the United Republic.

[s. 12A]

Place of, and disqualification
from voting
Act No.
13 of 2004 s. 12

19.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a person who is registered as a voter in any polling district shall be entitled to vote in any election in that polling district and every such person shall be entitled to vote at the polling station allocated to him in such a polling district.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), a presiding officer or polling assistant at any polling station shall not permit any person to vote at that polling station unless such person satisfies the presiding officer or as the case may be, a polling assistant, that he is the voter he claims to be by producing the voters card issued to such person or such other proof of identity as the Director of Elections may for the time being direct to be sufficient proof of identity of the person claiming to be entitled to vote.

(3) A person registered as a voter under this Act shall not be entitled to vote in any election if any circumstance arise in relation to that person which, if he were not so registered, would cause that person to be disqualified for registration under this Act.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, the Director of Elections or any person authorised in that behalf by the Director of Elections may, by a certificate under his hand, authorise a registered voter who is a candidate at an election in a constituency, to vote at the election in that constituency at the polling station specified in such certificate, whether or not such candidate is registered as a voter in that polling district.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, where a voter registered as such in any polling district is employed as a Registration Officer, presiding officer, police officer or in any other official capacity at a polling station in such polling district other than at the polling station allocated to that voter, the Director of Elections or any person authorised in that behalf by the Director of Elections may, by a certificate under his hand, authorise the voter to vote at any other polling station in such polling district, and that polling station shall, for the purpose of this Act, be deemed to be the polling station allocated to such voter.

(6) A person who is serving a sentence of imprisonment may, subject to the provisions of this Act, be registered as a voter, or vote at an election only if permitted to do so by the written law governing that person's imprisonment:

Provided that, this subsection shall not be construed as authorising any such person to vote at any polling station other than the polling station allocated to him.

[s. 13]

Change of name 20. A person registered as a voter whose name has been changed consequent upon marriage or for any other reason since being registered shall, if not disqualified from voting under section 19, be entitled to vote under the name in which he is registered.

[s. 14]

PART II REGISTRATION

Time for Registration
Acts Nos.
13 of 2004 s.5, 14
7 of 2010 s. 6

21.—(1) The Commission shall be responsible for setting time and review of registration of voters in every polling district within the constituency.

(2) A person entitled to be registered as a voter at any polling district and who has not been so registered, may present himself at a place where facilities for registration have been made available in the relevant polling district.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Commission to direct that the registration of voters in all or any polling district in the constituency specified in such direction, shall be suspended for such period as the Commission may direct if, in the opinion of the Commission, it is desirable to suspend the registration of voters.

(4) Where a direction under subsection (3) has been issued in respect of any polling district, registration of voters shall not take place in such polling district during the period specified in such direction.

(5) For the purpose of this section, the Commission shall review the Permanent National Voters' Register twice between a period commencing immediately after the General Elections and the date preceding the nomination day.

[s. 15]

Registration
agents
Act No.
7 of 2010 s. 7

22.—(1) A political party may appoint one person to be a registration agent for each registration centre within the constituency, for the purpose of -

- (a) detecting qualified persons for registration; and
- (b) assisting the registration assistant to secure a smooth compliance with relevant laws and procedures pertaining to the conduct of registration of voters.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), every political party shall, by notice in writing, notify the registration officer of the appointment not later than seven days before the date set for the commencement of registration of voters or within such shorter time as the Commission may allow.

(3) The notice under subsection (2) shall state the name of the agent so appointed and the name and address of the registration center to which the agent is assigned.

(4) A political party may, in the notice given under subsection (2), appoint an alternate registration agent who may be present and perform, whether permanently or temporarily, any of the functions of a registration agent in his absence from the registration center.

(5) Where a registration agent dies or becomes incapable of acting as such, the political party concerned may appoint another registration agent in his place, and shall immediately give to the Registration Officer and Registration Assistant concerned a notice in writing of the name and address of the registration agent so appointed and registration center to which that agent is appointed.

(6) The Registration Assistant shall, with the assistance and cooperation of the registration agent, deal with each complaint at the registration center as soon as it arises and is brought to his attention by any person who wishes to be registered.

Change of residence
Acts Nos.
13 of 2004 ss. 5, 15
3 of 2005 s. 3
7 of 2010 s. 8

24.—(1) Where any voter who is registered in one polling district becomes ordinarily resident in some other polling district, that voter may apply in accordance with the provisions of section 26, to the Registration Officer, Registration Assistant or any other staff as directed by the Commission for purposes of conducting registration of voters for the polling district in which he is ordinarily resident; and the Registration Officer, Registration Assistant or any other staff as directed by the Commission for the purpose of conducting registration of voters shall-

- (a) upon being satisfied that the applicant-
 - (i) is qualified for registration; and
 - (ii) is ordinarily resident in the polling district in respect of which he makes the application; and
- (b) on the surrender by the applicant of his voter's card or upon the applicant satisfying the Registration Officer,

Registration Assistant or any other staff directed by the Commission for the purpose of conducting registration of voters that the voter's card is lost or destroyed, register the applicant in the prescribed form for the polling district and cause to be issued another voter's card.

(2) Where a Registration Officer, Registration Assistant or any other staff as directed by the Commission for purposes of conducting registration of voters registers an applicant under this section, he shall immediately cancel the voter's card surrendered by the applicant.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 23(1), or subsection (1) of this section, where by reason of-

- (a) any change of name of a constituency;
- (b) any adjustment in the number of constituencies; or
- (c) any adjustment in the boundaries or areas of one or more constituencies, a constituency becomes part of another constituency or a polling district of one constituency becomes a polling district or part of a polling district of another constituency or of the same constituency with a new name, it shall not be necessary for a voter whose name is in any Register affected by such adjustment, to apply for the transfer of name to the appropriate Register but the Director of Elections shall, as soon as possible, effect such amendment of transfer as may be necessary to give effect to such adjustment as if an application for transfer had been made by a voter concerned pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

PART III

OBJECTION TO REGISTRATION OR CONTINUED REGISTRATION

Inspection of Provisional
Voters' Register
Acts Nos.
8 of 2004 s. 17,19
13 of 2004

29.—(1) A person may inspect the Provisional Voter's Register of any polling district on such day and at such time as the Registration Officer or, as the case may be, the Director of Elections, may determine.

(2) The Registration Officer shall display the Provisional Voters' Register in every ward and may amend it, if necessary, in the manner as may be prescribed by the Commission.

[s. 22]

Inclusion of name
in Provisional
Voters' Register
Act No.
13 of 2004 s..5,
12, 17

30.—(1) Where any person who has been registered as a voter and holds a valid voter's card in respect of a polling district discovers pursuant to an inspection made in accordance with the provisions of section 29, that his name does not appear in the Provisional Voters' Register of the polling district that person he may apply to the Director of Elections, and the Director of Elections or, as the case may be; the Registration Officer shall, if satisfied that the name of such person should have been included in the Provisional Voters' Register of the polling district, amend or cause to be amended the Provisional Voters' Register by inclusion of the name of such person.

(2) Where the Director of Elections or the Registration Officer refuses to amend the Provisional Voters' Register to include the name of any person, the person aggrieved by such refusal may object to such refusal in accordance with the succeeding provisions of this Part.

[s. 23]

Objections
Act No.
13 of 2004 s..
5, 17

31.—(1) A person whose name appears in the Provisional Voters' Register for any polling district may object to the retention in that Provisional Voters' Register of his own name or the name of any other person on the ground that he or such other person is not qualified or is no longer qualified to be so registered or that such other person is dead.

(2) The Director of Elections or the Registration Officer may object to the retention of any name in the Provisional Voters' Register of any polling district on any of the grounds referred to in subsection (1).

(3) Any person who makes an objection under this section is hereinafter referred to as "the objector".

[s. 24]

Procedure for making objections
Act No.
13 of 2004 s. 5

32.—(1) Except in the case of objection being made by the Director of Elections or a Registration Officer, every objection shall be made in duplicate in the prescribed form and be made to the Registration Officer within such period as may be prescribed.

(2) Every objection, other than an objection made by the Director of Elections or Registration Officer, shall be accompanied by a deposit of such sum as the Commission may, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe.

(3) The Registration Officer shall, as soon as practicable after receiving an objection made in accordance with this Part or in the case of an objection made by himself, within such period as may be prescribed, serve notice of such objection to the person in regard to whom such objection has been made:

Provided that, a Registration Officer shall not be required to serve notice where an objection is made on the ground that a person whose name appears in the Provisional Voters' Register is dead.

[s. 25]

Inquiry and determination
by Registration
Officer
Act No.
13 of 2004 s. 5,
17, 20

33.—(1) The Registration Officer shall as soon as practicable, hold a public inquiry into all objections which have been duly made, giving not less than seven clear days written notice of the date on which and the time and place at which such inquiry will commence to each objector and the person in regard to whom the objection has been made, and, at any such public inquiry, any person appearing to the Registration Officer to be interested in or affected by the subject matter of the inquiry, may appear and be heard either in person or by any other person duly authorised by the person interested or affected in writing in that behalf.

(2) Where an objection is made to the retention or non-inclusion of any name in the Provisional Voters' Register, the Registration Officer shall call upon the objector or any person authorised in writing in that behalf by the objector to give prima facie proof of the ground of the objection.

(3) Where in the opinion of the Registration Officer such prima facie proof is given, the Registration Officer shall require proof of the present qualification for registration of the person in regard to whom the objection has been made and-

- (a) where such person's qualification is not proved to the satisfaction of the Registration Officer, the Registration Officer shall inform the Director of Elections of the same and the Director of Elections shall delete or cause to be deleted such person's name from the Provisional Voters' Register; or
- (b) where such person's qualification is so proved, the Registration Officer shall inform the Director of Elections of the same and the Director of Elections shall retain, or as the case may be, include or cause to be retained or included, such person's name in the Provisional Voters' Register.

(4) Where on the date fixed for inquiry into any objection, the objector or any person authorised in writing in that behalf by the objector, fails to appear or appears but fails to give prima facie proof to the satisfaction of the Registration Officer, the Registration Officer shall retain or cause to be retained the name of the person in regard to whom the objection is made in the Register or, as the case may be, take no steps for the amendment of the Provisional Voters' Register so as to retain inclusion in the Provisional Voters' Register of the name of the person in regard to whom the objection is made.

(5) Where an objection made by any person other than the Registration Officer or the Director of Elections is disallowed by the Registration Officer and in his opinion, the objection was made without reasonable cause, the Registration Officer may, if he thinks fit, order in writing the objector to pay the person in regard to whom the objection has been made, compensation in such sum as the Commission may, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe.

(6) A sum awarded as compensation under this section shall be recoverable as though the order of the Registration Officer were a decree of a district court for the recovery of money.

(7) Where an objection is disallowed by the Registration Officer and he is of the opinion that the objection was made without reasonable cause, the deposit of such sum as the Commission may, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe to be deposited by an objector, shall be liable to be forfeited to the Government by order of the Registration Officer, or where such order is not made, deposit shall be refunded.

(8) The validity of the proceedings under this section shall not be questioned by reason only of the Registration Officer inquiring into and determining an objection made by himself, and in any such case the procedure at an inquiry under this section shall commence at the stage at which the Registration Officer required proof of the present qualification of the person in regard to whom the objection is made.

(9) The Registration Officer shall decide on the objection under this Part within seven days from the last day of the issuance of the notice of inquiry.

[s. 26]

Objector or person objected to may appeal
Act No.
13 of 2004 s..
5, 21

34.—(1) Where any objector or person in regard to whom objection has been made is dissatisfied with the decision of the Registration Officer under section 33, the objector or person may, within seven days from the date of such decision, appeal to a district court.

(2) The district court shall determine such appeal within fourteen days from the date of submission of an appeal.

[s. 27]

PART IV

APPEALS AND ADDITIONS TO OR DELETION FROM THE PROVISIONAL VOTERS' REGISTER

Appeals to district court
Acts Nos.
6 of 1992 s. 10
13 of 2004 s.. 5,
12, 22

35.—(1) Every appeal under section 28 or 34 shall state shortly the grounds of appeal, and shall be accompanied by such sum as the Commission may, by notice in the Gazette prescribe, as a deposit.

(2) The district court shall hear every such appeal in public giving notice of the time, date and place of the hearing of the appeal to the parties concerned and it shall be on its discretion whether to hear or not to hear any evidence and, his determination of the appeal shall be final and conclusive and shall not be called in question in any court.

(3) Where the district court has determined an appeal which has been lodged with respect to any Provisional Voter's Register on the issue of a voter's card, it shall forward to the Registration Officer a statement containing the names which he has decided shall be deleted from the Provisional Voters' Register and a statement of a name of any person to whom a voter's card shall be issued, and the Registration Officer shall inform the Director of Elections on the result of the appeal, and the Director of Elections shall amend or cause to be amended the Provisional Voters' Register and issue a voter's card accordingly:

Provided that-

- (a) the district court shall not require the Registration Officer to cause the issuance of another voter's card where the previous voter's card has been lost or destroyed, unless such person makes the declaration to the Registration Officer as required under section 27; and
- (b) in any case to which section 25, 26 or 27 applies and no declaration has been made in accordance with section 27, the Registration Officer may refuse to cause the issuance of another voter's card until the previous voter's card issued to the person concerned has been surrendered.

(4) Where an appeal is dismissed and the district court is of the opinion that the appeal was made without reasonable cause, it may order that the deposit of such sum as the Commission may, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe to be deposited upon appeal, be forfeited to the Government, or if no such order is made, the deposit shall be refunded.

(5) A party to an appeal shall not be entitled to any costs or compensation:

Provided that, if an appeal is made and allowed by the district court and in his opinion the appeal was made without cause, the district court may, if it thinks fit, order the appellant to pay compensation of such sum as the Commission may, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe and any sum so awarded, shall be recoverable as though the order were a decree of a district court for the recovery of money.

(6) Where an appeal has been made under this section, the district court may, whether it allows or dismisses the appeal, order that any deposit forfeited or to be forfeited or any sum of money paid or to be paid by way of compensation in accordance with an order of the Registration Officer under section 33; or so much of such deposit or such sum as the district court may specify shall not be paid or forfeited, or shall be returned to the objector, as the case may be, and any sum ordered to be returned shall be recoverable as though the order was a decree of a district court for the recovery of the money.

(7) A witness may be summoned and sworn in the hearing of an appeal under the provisions of this section in the same manner as nearly as circumstances permit as in a trial by a district court in the exercise of its criminal jurisdiction and shall, without prejudice to the provisions of any other law, be subject to the same penalties for giving false evidence or for non-attendance.

(8) A person entitled to appear as a party at an appeal brought under the provisions of this section may appear either in person or by an advocate.

(9) The procedure and practice of hearing appeals under this section shall be regulated in such manner as the district court shall decide and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, a district court may, if satisfied that two or more appeals involve the same question declare that the decision given in an appeal heard previously shall be binding on the parties to such other appeal or appeals as it shall specify.

Provisions
consequential upon additions to, or deletions
from Provisional
Voters' Register
Act No.
13 of 2004 s. 5,
12, 23

36.—(1) Where the name of any person has been added to a Provisional Voters' Register pursuant to section 33, or any voter's card has been issued to any person in pursuance of that section, the Registration Officer shall take steps in relation to that person as if he had not refused the application to which the appeal relates.

(2) Where the name of any person has been deleted from the Provisional Voters' Register pursuant to section 33, the Registration Officer shall require such person either—

(a) to surrender any voter's card issued to such person under this Act; or

(b) to make and deliver to the Registration Officer the declaration provided for in section 27, within such period, being not less than ten days, as the Registration Officer shall specify and the Registration Officer shall cause to be cancelled any voter's card so surrendered.

Particulars of nomination
Acts Nos.
21 of 1992 s. 2
32 of 1994 Sch.
13 of 2004 s. 12

39.—(1) Every Presidential candidate shall deliver in such manner and at such place as the Commission may direct, not later than four o'clock on the nomination day, in such number of copies as the Commission may direct and which shall contain the following particulars:

- (a) the name and address of the candidate for the office of President and of the Vice-President who shall be the running mate;
- (b) the names and addresses of the nominators; and
- (c) the numbers of the voter's cards of the nominators.

(2) A person shall not be a nominator for more than one Presidential candidate.

(3) For purposes of this Part, "nomination day" means the day declared by the Commission as the last day for receiving names of aspiring Presidential candidates.

[s. 32]

Deposits
Act No.
21 of 1992 s. 2

40.—(1) Every Presidential candidate shall, at the time of delivering nomination form pursuant to other provisions of this Part, deposit with the office of the Commission, such sum of money as may be prescribed by the Commission.

- (2) The deposit shall be forfeited to the Government if-
 - (a) the Presidential candidate withdraws his candidature after nomination day; or
 - (b) the number of votes counted in his favour at the election is less than one-tenth of the total number of valid votes cast, except that such deposit shall not be forfeited if the candidate dies before the election.

(3) Where the deposit is not forfeited under the provisions of subsection (2), it shall, as soon as practicable after the declaration of the results of the election, be refunded to the Presidential candidate or paid to his personal legal representative, as the case may be, by the Commission.

[s. 33]

Sole Presidential Candidate
Act No.
21 of 1992 s. 2

41.—(1) Where there is only one validly nominated Presidential candidate, the Commission shall declare such person as the sole Presidential candidate.

(2) The Presidential candidate declared under subsection (1) shall be duly elected to the office of the President if he obtains more than fifty percent of the total votes cast.

(3) Where the sole Presidential candidate has failed to secure the required percentage of votes, the Commission shall declare another nomination day for the purpose of Presidential election.

[s. 34]

Withdrawal of Candidature

42. A Presidential candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing signed and delivered by that candidate to the Commission not later than four o'clock on the nomination day.

32 of 1994 Sch.
7 of 2010 s. 9

43.—(1) Where—

(a) after four o'clock on the nomination day there is no validly nominated candidate; or

(b) at any time after four o'clock on nomination day and before the determination of an election, any Presidential or Vice-Presidential candidate dies, the Commission shall immediately, by notice in the Gazette, appoint a further nomination day being, in the case of death, a day not later than fourteen days from the date of death, a day to give time to the political party concerned to nominate a new Presidential or Vice-Presidential candidate, as the case may be.

(2) Where a further nomination day is appointed under this section, the Commission shall appoint another Presidential election day and the appropriate procedures shall be commenced afresh, except that a new nomination shall not be required in the case of the other Presidential candidates, if there are any.

[s. 35A]

PART II ELECTION PROCEDURE

Presidential election day
Act No.
21 of 1992 s. 2

44.—(1) Subject to section 46, the Commission shall appoint a day in this Act referred to as Presidential election day, for the holding of a ballot in every constituency for the election of the President.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Commission may appoint different Presidential election days for different constituencies and may revoke the appointment of a Presidential election day and appoint some other Presidential election day.

(3) The Commission shall appoint as Presidential election day—

(a) in the case of a Presidential election held by reason of dissolution of Parliament other than in the circumstances provided for by Article 38(2)(b)(c)(d) or (e) of the Constitution—

(i) for each constituency in which there is a Parliamentary election, the day appointed as election day for that Parliamentary election;

(ii) for every other constituency, a day not less than forty days and not more than fifty days after the nomination day;

(b) in the case of a Presidential election to which paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply, for every constituency, a day not less than forty days and not more than fifty days after the nomination of the Presidential candidates.

(4) Different days may be appointed under paragraph (a)(ii) or subsection (3)(b) for different constituencies.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (3), a constituency for which a Parliamentary election is commenced afresh, shall be deemed to be a constituency in which there is no Parliamentary election.

[s. 35B]

Persons entitled to vote at Presidential Election Act No. 21 of 1992 s. 2

45.—(1) Every person registered as a voter under this Act shall be entitled to vote at a Presidential election.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), a registered voter may vote—

(a) on the Presidential election day appointed for the constituency for which he is registered as a voter; and

(b) at the polling station allotted to him in the polling district for which he is so registered.

(3) The Commission may give directions and prescribe conditions under which a person may, on the Presidential election day, be allowed to vote at a polling station other than that allotted to him.

[s. 35C]

Application of Chapter IV Act No. 21 of 1992 s. 2

46. The provisions of Chapter IV of this Act shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to Presidential candidates.

[s. 35D]

Application of Chapter V Act No. 21 of 1992 s. 2

47. The ballot for the election of a President in each constituency shall be held in the like manner as the ballot in a Parliamentary election and subject to any necessary modification and provisions of this section, 48 and 51 and the provisions of chapter V of this Act shall apply for the regulation thereof and for such other matters as are provided for in chapter V of this Act.

48.—(1) After all the reports of the results and the ballot boxes containing the ballot papers relating to Presidential election, have been received from all the polling stations in the constituency, the Returning Officer shall, after determining the validity of any disputed votes, add together the figures of-

- (a) all the votes cast in the constituency;
- (b) the votes in favour of each candidate; and
- (c) the rejected ballot papers.

(2) The Returning Officer shall, after compiling the Presidential results in the constituency, display such results at a conspicuous place.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), the Returning Officer shall prepare and submit to the Commission, a report of the partial results of the Presidential election in the constituency.

(4) The Commission may direct that the Returning Officer shall, after preparing the report of the results under subsection (2), display a copy of the report in such conspicuous public place.

(5) The Returning Officer shall certify and give a copy of the report to each of the polling agents or if present, to the Presidential candidates.

(6) The Commission may, where there is any doubt as to the accuracy in the addition of Presidential votes in any constituency, require the repetition of the addition of the figures from the partial results from some or all of the polling stations in the constituency.

(7) The Commission shall, after receiving the results submitted to it under subsection (3), declare the results of Presidential election for the particular constituency concerned.

(8) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission shall, after adding together all the respective total results submitted to it by each Returning Officer, declare the results of the Presidential election in the country.

(9) A Presidential candidate shall be declared to have been elected President if he receives the greatest number of all the valid votes cast.

be held where the President has given notice of the intention to dissolve Parliament, the notice of a nomination day may be given before such dissolution.

(6) Where a by-election is to be held and the date for dissolution of Parliament has been proclaimed or is known on account of the events specified in Article 90(3) of the Constitution, such by-election shall not take place at any time during the period of twelve months immediately preceding the date of the dissolution of Parliament.

Cap. 2

[s. 37]

Nomination of Candidates
Acts Nos.
4 of 2000 Sch.
13 of 2004 s. 24
7 of 2010 s. 11
17 of 2010 s. 27

53.—(1) In order to be validly nominated as a candidate for Parliamentary election, a person shall be nominated in writing by not less than twenty-five nominators who are voters registered in the polling districts within the constituency for which that person is a candidate.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Commission may, on the nomination day, refuse to nominate a person as a candidate if it is satisfied that the person has been disqualified from participating in the nomination process by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Election Expenses Act.

Cap. 278

(3) The nomination shall be in the prescribed form, signed by the candidate and by the nominators and contain the following particulars:

- (a) the name, address and occupation of the candidate;
- (b) the names and addresses of the nominators and the numbers of their voter's cards; and
- (c) a certificate by the candidate that he is willing and otherwise qualified to stand for election.

(4) Every nomination form shall be accompanied by-

- (a) a statutory declaration in the prescribed form, made and signed by the candidate before a magistrate and declaring the candidate's qualifications and that he is not disqualified for election except that, statutory declaration of the candidate's for the office of the President and Vice-President of the United Republic shall be made before a Judge;

- (b) such number of photographs of the candidate as the Commission may deem necessary, taken not earlier than three months preceding the nomination day; and
- (c) such biographical information relating to the candidate as may be required to be given by regulations in such form as may be prescribed.

(5) Where, in any case, a nomination form is not accompanied by the documents specified in subsection (4), the nomination of the candidate shall be deemed to be void:

Provided that, the Commission may, in any particular case if it thinks reasonable so to do, direct that the nomination form be accepted as valid notwithstanding that such nomination form was not accompanied by any of such documents if the documents in question are submitted to the Returning Officer within such further time as the Commission may allow.

(6) The Returning Officer shall provide nomination forms and supply any voter with such number of nomination forms as he may require.

(7) Every candidate or one of the nominators of the candidate, shall deliver the nomination form together with one copy signed as provided for under this section, at the office of the Returning Officer not later than four o'clock in the afternoon of the nomination day.

(8) The Returning Officer shall immediately cause a copy of the nomination form to be posted in a conspicuous place outside his office.

(9) A person shall not nominate more than one candidate for any one election and where a Returning Officer has issued a certificate under subsection (4)(b) in respect of a person's nomination of one candidate, he shall refuse to issue a certificate in respect of that person's nomination of another candidate for the same election:

Provided that, a person may not be prevented from signing a nomination form by reason only of his having signed a nomination form of a candidate who has died or withdrawn his candidature before delivery of such first-mentioned nomination form.

(10) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (9), where a nominator nominates more than one candidate for the same election and certificates have been issued under subsection (4)(b) in respect of such person's registration, both such candidates nomination shall be valid.

(11) A person who nominates more than one candidate commits an offence, and upon conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand shillings.

(12) The Returning Officer may, where he is satisfied that any person has committed an offence under subsection (11), by order under his hand compound such offence by requiring such person to make payment of a sum of money:

Provided that-

- (a) such sum of money shall not be more than the maximum fine provided for such offence;
- (b) the power conferred by this subsection shall only be exercised where the person admits in writing that he has committed the offence; and
- (c) the Returning Officer shall issue to the person from whom he receives such sum of money a receipt thereof.

(13) A nominator may, subject to the provisions of subsection (9), nominate one candidate each for Presidential, Parliamentary and Local Authority election.

(14) A Returning Officer shall, when requested by or on behalf of a candidate to issue a certificate in respect of a nominator who is registered in a polling district of which he has charge, issue a certificate accordingly.

(15) The fact that, subsequent to nomination day, the name of a person who has nominated a candidate is deleted from a Register of voters for the relevant polling district, shall not invalidate the nomination of the candidate.

56.—(1) Objections may be made to a nomination form on all or any of the following grounds:

- (a) that the particulars given in respect of the candidate are insufficient to identify him;
- (b) that the nomination form does not comply with or was not delivered in accordance with the provisions of this Part;
- (c) that it is apparent from the contents of the nomination form that the candidate is not qualified to stand for election;
- (d) that the requirements of section 53(4) have not been complied with; and
- (e) where the requirements of the Election Expenses Act, have not been complied with.

Cap. 278

(2) Objection to a nomination form shall not be allowed unless it is made to the Returning Officer not later than four o'clock in the afternoon of the day following nomination day.

(3) The objection may be made by another candidate in the constituency, the Director of Elections, the Registrar of Political Parties, the Returning Officer on his own motion or the Attorney General and shall be made in writing, signed by the objector, and shall specify the grounds of objection.

(4) The Returning Officer shall, before deciding on the validity of any objection with the least possible delay -

(a) notify the person against whom the objection is made; and

(b) avail such person an opportunity to be heard.

(5) Where the Returning Officer decides on any objection under subsection (4), he shall notify in writing the candidate concerned of the decision and if the objection is allowed, of the grounds for the decision.

(6) Where a Returning Officer makes an objection on his own motion, under subsection (3), he shall before making any finding inform the candidate concerned in writing and after making a finding on the objection he shall refer such findings to the Commission.

(7) Any candidate who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Returning Officer on the validity of an objection may, in such manner and within such period as the Commission may prescribe, appeal to the Commission and the decision of the Commission shall be final and conclusive and shall not be challenged in any court, except by way of an election petition presented pursuant to the provisions of Chapter VII on one or other of the grounds specified in that Chapter.

(8) Notwithstanding any provisions of this section, the Registrar of Political Parties shall, upon filing an objection under subsection (3), the objection shall be subjected to the procedure laid down under this Act.

6 of 1992 s. 31
32 of 1994 Sch.
8 of 1995 s. 10
4 of 2000 Sch.
13 of 2004 s. 30

78.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 63(3) and section 105, each polling agent shall be present at the opening of the voting at the polling station in respect of which he is appointed a polling agent.

(2) Before the commencement of voting at a polling station the polling agent shall be required by the presiding officer to submit to him in the prescribed manner, any complaint that the polling agent has or has received, or any expression of his satisfaction with regard to the arrangements for voting in the polling station.

(3) The voting at an election shall be conducted in the following manner-

- (a) every voter who wishes to vote shall present himself at the polling station allotted to him in the polling district for which he is registered, and shall satisfy the presiding officer or a polling assistant at such polling station that he is the voter he claims to be and that he has not voted already at such polling station or elsewhere and such person may satisfy the presiding officer or a polling assistant that he is the voter he claims to be by producing to that officer or a polling assistant a voter's card or any other documentary evidence as the Director of Elections may direct;

- (b) where a voter is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause or is unable to read, that voter may ask a person of his own choice other than the presiding officer, a polling assistant or a polling agent, to assist such an incapacitated person to record his vote in accordance with paragraphs (c) to (k) of this subsection and a person chosen under this paragraph shall assist not more than one voter:

Provided that, where in a household there is more than one person who requires assistance under this paragraph, it shall be lawful for such members of the household to choose one person to assist them;

- (c) upon being satisfied as to the identity of the voter and that such voter's name appears on the Register for the polling district and the voter has been allocated to vote at such polling station, the presiding officer or polling assistant shall deliver to the voter concerned a ballot paper;
- (d) immediately before the presiding officer or polling assistant delivers a ballot paper to any person-
- (i) the ballot paper shall be perforated or stamped with an official mark;
 - (ii) the number and particulars of the voter, as stated in the copy of the Register of voters or part of the Register maintained at the polling station, shall be called out;
 - (iii) the number of the voter in the copy of the Register of voters or part of the Register shall be marked on the counterfoil; and
 - (iv) a mark shall be placed against the number of the voter in the copy of the Register of voters or part of the Register to denote that a ballot paper has been received by such voter;

- (e) subject to the provisions of paragraph (h), a voter on receiving a ballot paper shall go immediately into one of the polling booths in the polling station, secretly record his vote in the manner provided for in paragraph (f), fold up the ballot paper so as to conceal his vote and shall proceed to the ballot box and show to a polling assistant the back of the ballot paper so as to reveal the official mark and shall then put the folded ballot paper into the ballot box;
- (f) a voter shall record his vote by putting a mark against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote and by that mark, recording no more than one vote;
- (g) a voter shall not place on the ballot paper any writing or mark by which he may be identified;
- (h) a voter shall vote without undue delay;
- (i) where a voter is illiterate or does not understand how to record his vote, the presiding officer may, in the presence of the polling agent, explain to the voter the procedure;
- (j) subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (i), a voter shall not show the mark which he has placed upon his ballot paper to any person, and if he does so, the ballot paper shall be treated as a spoilt ballot paper:

Provided that, the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply if a ballot paper is shown by a voter to the presiding officer for the purpose only of ascertaining if the voter has carried out his duties correctly;

- (k) a voter who has accidentally dealt with a ballot paper in such manner that it can not conveniently be used as a valid ballot paper to the presiding officer and after satisfying the presiding officer that the ballot paper has been spoilt by accident, obtain another ballot paper in the place of the ballot paper so delivered and the spoilt ballot paper and its counterfoil shall be immediately marked as cancelled.

(4) Where any voter has any complaint in relation to the conduct of the voting in the polling station or polling district in which he is registered, he may, before or immediately after voting but before leaving the polling station, submit his complaint in the prescribed form to the presiding officer or to a polling assistant and where the complaint concerns the conduct of the presiding officer, it shall be recorded in the presence of the polling agent.

7 of 2010 s. 17

80.—(1) A person shall not be admitted to vote at any polling station except at the polling station allocated to him in the polling district in which he is registered as a voter.

(2) A person other than the following shall not be admitted into a polling station:

- (a) a presiding officer;
- (b) a polling assistant;
- (c) a polling agent;
- (d) a voter;
- (e) a person assisting an incapacitated voter pursuant to section 78;
- (f) an observer duly authorised in writing by the Commission;
- (g) the candidate;
- (h) a member of the Commission;
- (i) the Director of Elections;
- (j) an officer of the Commission;
- (k) the Regional Elections Coordinator;
- (l) a police officer or any other person responsible for security at the polling station; and
- (m) the Returning Officer and Assistant Returning Officer.

(3) The presiding officer may, in his discretion, admit at least not less than two observers if any to the polling station.

(4) The Commission may give directions regulating the conduct of observers.

(5) Where any person misbehaves in the polling station or fails to obey the lawful orders of the presiding officer, he may immediately, by order of the presiding officer, be removed from the polling station by any police officer in or near the station or by any other person authorised in writing by the presiding officer or by the Returning Officer, and the person so removed shall not, unless with the permission of the presiding officer, be allowed to enter the polling station.

(6) A person removed pursuant to subsection (5), if charged with the commission of any offence in such polling station, may be kept in custody until he can be brought before a magistrate but the powers conferred by this section shall not be exercised so as to prevent any voter who is otherwise entitled to vote at any polling station, from having an opportunity of voting at such polling station.

Allegation of irregularities
Act No.
6 of 1992 s. 33

81.—(1) Where the presiding officer at any polling station has reason to believe, or where a candidate or polling agent present at any polling station alleges, that any person wishing to vote at that polling station, is not a voter entitled to vote at that polling station, the presiding officer shall warn such person that he will be committing an offence under this Act by so voting.

(2) Where, notwithstanding such warning, such person persists in his wish to vote and-

- (a) produces any evidence to show that he is entitled to vote at the polling station in question; and
- (b) having been required to make and subscribe to a declaration as prescribed by section 83, makes and subscribes to one or both of the declaration to which that section refers, the presiding officer shall deliver a ballot paper to such person and permit that person to vote at such polling station.

(3) A presiding officer shall record in writing the full name and address which a person warned under subsection (1) gives as his name and address and, if such person has voted the presiding officer shall state that fact in such record.

CHAPTER VII

AVOIDANCE OF ELECTIONS BY ELECTION PETITION

Avoidance of election by election petition
Acts Nos.
6 of 1992 s. 49
8 of 1995 s. 20
4 of 2000 Sch.
Cap. 2

135.—(1) Pursuant to the limitation imposed by subarticle (7) of Article 41 of the Constitution, the provisions of this section shall apply only in relation to the election of a candidate as a Member of Parliament.

(2) The election of a candidate as a Member of Parliament shall be declared void only on an election petition if any of the following grounds is proved to the satisfaction of the High Court and on no other ground, namely—

- (a) that, during the election campaign, statements were made by the candidate, or on his behalf and with his knowledge and consent or approval, with intent to exploit tribal, racial or religious issues or differences pertinent to the election or relating to any of the candidates, or, where the candidates are not of the same sex, with intent to exploit such difference;
- (b) non-compliance with the provisions of this Act relating to election, if it appears that the election was not conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in such provisions and that such non-compliance affected the result of the election; or
- (c) that the candidate was at the time of his election, a person not qualified for election as a Member of Parliament.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), where upon trial of an election petition in respect of an election under this Act, the High Court finds that corrupt or illegal practice in connection with the election has been committed by or with the knowledge and consent or approval of any of the candidate's agents and the High Court further finds, after giving the Attorney General or his representative an opportunity of being heard, that the candidate has proved to the High Court—

- (a) that no corrupt or illegal practice was committed by the candidate himself or with the knowledge and consent or approval of such candidate;
- (b) that the candidate took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of any corrupt or illegal practice at such an election; and
- (c) that in all other respects corrupt or illegal practice on the part of the candidate, then, if the High Court so determines, the election of such candidate shall not by reason of any such practice be void.

PROCEDURE AND JURISDICTION OF THE COURT⁶

Petitions triable
by Court
Acts Nos.
13 of 1990 s. 18
6 of 1992 s. 50
6 of 1992

138.—(1) Every election petition shall be heard and determined by the High Court in this Chapter which shall be referred to as “the Court”, in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) Witnesses shall be summoned and sworn in the same manner as nearly as circumstances admit, as in a trial by the court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction and shall, without prejudice to the provisions of any other law, be subject to the same penalties for giving false evidence or for non-attendance.

(3) On the trial of an election petition under this Act, the Court may by order, compel the attendance of any person as a witness who appears to the court to have been concerned in the election to which the petition refers, and any person refusing to obey such order commits an offence of contempt of court and the court may examine any witness so compelled to attend or any party to the petition and after the examination of such witness by the Court, the witness may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner, the respondent and the Attorney General or his representative, if present, or any of them.

(4) At the hearing of an election petition, the Court shall have power to compel the attendance of any person as a witness who appears to the Court to have been concerned or involved in the election in question or whose evidence may assist the Court to reach a just and fair decision in the matter before it.

security for costs
Acts Nos.
13 of 1990 s. 19
6 of 1992 s. 51
4 of 2000 Sch.
25 of 2002 Sch.

139.—(1) An election petition may be presented by one or more of the following persons, namely—

- (a) a person who lawfully voted or had a right to vote at the election to which the petition relates;
- (b) a person claiming to have had a right to be nominated or elected at such election;
- (c) a person alleging to have been a candidate at such election; or
- (d) the Attorney General.

(2) The Registrar shall not fix a date for the hearing of a petition unless the petitioner has paid into the court as security for costs, an amount not exceeding five million shillings in respect of each respondent.

(3) The petitioner shall, within fourteen days after filing a petition, make an application for determination of the amount payable as security for costs, and the Court shall determine such application within the next fourteen days following the date of filing an application for determination of the amount payable as security for costs.

(4) Where any person is made a respondent pursuant to an order of the court, the petitioner shall within fourteen days of the date on which the order directing a person to be joined as a respondent was made, pay into the court a further amount not exceeding three million shillings, as shall be directed by the court in respect of such person.

(5) Where, on application made by the petitioner, the court is satisfied that compliance with the provisions of subsection (2) or (4) shall cause considerable hardship to the petitioner, it may direct that:

- (a) the petitioner gives such other form of security the value of which does not exceed five million shillings, as the court may consider fit; or
- (b) the petitioner be exempted from payment of any form of security for costs.

(6) An order shall not be made under subsection (3), (4) or (5) unless an opportunity has been given to the respondent or, where there are two or more respondents, to each of the respondents to make representations in that behalf.

(7) In the event of security for costs not being paid into the court within fourteen days from the date of determination by the court of the amount payable as security for costs, no further proceedings shall be heard on the petition.

(8) The provisions of subsections (2) and (3) shall not apply in any case in which the Attorney General is the petitioner or one of the petitioners.

(9) The amount of money deposited as security for costs or the balance of it shall, where the petitioner succeeds in the petition or on appeal and where no order as to costs lies against the petitioner, be immediately refunded to the petitioner.

13 of 2004 s. 37
7 of 2010 s. 24

142.-(1) Where the court determines that a person is guilty of any corrupt or illegal practice, it shall certify the same to the Director of Elections and if the person concerned is registered as a voter-

- (a) the Director of Elections shall delete his name from the register of voters in which he is registered; and
- (b) the Director of Elections shall inform in writing the Returning Officer for the polling district concerned, of such deletion.

(2) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition or appeal, the Court shall certify to the Director of Elections-

- (a) whether any corrupt or illegal practice has been proved to have been committed by or with the knowledge and consent or approval of any candidate at the election, and the nature of such practice, if any; and

- (b) the names and other particulars of all persons, if any, who have been proved to the satisfaction of the Court to have been guilty of any corrupt or illegal practice.

(3) Before any person, who is neither a party to an election petition nor a candidate on behalf of whom the seat is claimed by an election petition, is certified by the Court under this section, the Court shall give such person an opportunity of being heard and of giving and calling evidence to show cause why he should not be so certified.

(4) Where the Court certifies that an offence of corrupt or illegal practice has been committed by any person, that person shall be subject to the same disqualifications as if at the date of that certificate, he had been convicted of the offence of illegal practice.

(5) Where the Court certifies that corrupt or illegal practice has been committed by any person with the knowledge and consent or approval of a candidate, then in addition to any other consequences, the candidate shall be subject to the same disqualifications as if at the date of that certificate, he had been convicted of the offence of corrupt or illegal practice.

(6) The Director of Elections shall immediately-

- (a) cause a copy of the certificate issued under this section to be published in the Gazette;
- (b) delete from the Register the name of any person registered in it, who appears from the record to be disqualified from voting at an election; and
- (c) inform in writing the Returning Officer for the relevant polling district, of every such deletion of the name of the person who is registered as a voter in that polling district.

(7) Immediately upon being so informed, the Returning Officer shall take all steps as may be necessary for ensuring that the person concerned returns the voter's card and any other relevant document for cancellation.
