- “Minister” means the Minister responsible for public leadership code of ethics;
- “public leader” means any person holding any of the public office as specified in the Schedule;
- “Tribunal” means the Ethics Tribunal appointed under section 29.

PART II

BASIC ELEMENTS OF CODE OF ETHICS

President to work for promotion of integrity in public office etc.

5.–(1) It shall be the duty of the President, subject to this Act, to work towards the evolution of ethical standards designed to provide a basis for enhancing public confidence in the integrity of public leaders and in the decision making process in the Government and in the public sector in general.

(2) In discharging the duty imposed on him by this section, the President shall be guided, subject to this Act, by the need to evolve, and to foster, sound rules and ethical standards in the public service by-

- (a) providing that a public leader shall not put himself in a position where his personal interest conflicts with his responsibility as a leader;
- (b) encouraging experienced and competent persons to seek and accept public office, and facilitating interchange between the private and the public sector;
- (c) establishing clear rules of ethics in respect of conflict of interest for, and post-employment practices applicable to elected and appointed public leaders;
- (d) minimising the possibility of conflicts arising between the private interests and public duties of public leaders and providing for the resolution of such conflicts in the public interests should they arise.

Principles to be invoked by Code Act No. 4 of 2016 s. 62

6.–(1) The Code of Ethics for public leaders shall seek as far as possible to institute and invoke the following principles in respect of the conduct of public leaders:

- (a) in relation to ethical standards, that public leaders shall while in office, act with honesty, compassion, sobriety, continence and temperance, and uphold the highest possible ethical standards so that public confidence and trust in the integrity, objectivity and impartiality of Government are conserved and enhanced;
- (b) in relation to public scrutiny, that public leaders shall have an obligation-
 - (i) to perform their official duties and arrange their private affairs in a manner that would bear the closest public scrutiny, an obligation that is not fully discharged by simply acting lawfully;
 - (ii) in relation to all public leaders whether in elective or appointive offices, there is to be established a procedure for declaration of all property or assets owned by, or liabilities owed to him, his spouse or child, without prejudice to the right of wives and husbands of public leaders to own property independently of their spouses;
- (c) in relation to decision making, that public leaders shall, in fulfilling their official duties and responsibilities make decisions in accordance with law, in the public interest and with regard to the merits of each case;
- (d) in relation to private interest, that public leaders shall not have private interests, other than those permitted by the Code that would be affected particularly or significantly by Government actions in which they participate;
- (e) in relation to public interest, that on appointment or election to office and thereafter, the public leader shall

- arrange his affairs in a manner that would not occasion real, potential or apparent conflict of interest;
- (f) in relation to execution of duties, the public leader shall not, whether directly or indirectly, act or make decision in furtherance of his private interest or interest of the member of his family or any other person for whom he has a fiduciary relationship;
 - (g) in relation to gifts and benefits, that public leaders shall not solicit or accept transfers of economic benefit other than incidental gifts, customary hospitality or other benefits of nominal value, unless the transfer is pursuant to an enforceable contract or property right of the public leader;
 - (h) in relation to preferential treatment, that public leaders shall not step out of their official roles to assist private entities or persons in their dealing with the Government where this would result in preferential treatment to any person;
 - (i) in relation to inside information, that public leaders shall not knowingly take advantage of, or benefit from information which is obtained in the course of their official duties and responsibilities and that is not generally available to the public;
 - (j) in relation to Government property that public leaders shall not directly or indirectly use, or allow the use of, Government property of any kind, including property leased to the Government, for purposes of according economic benefit to the leader;
 - (k) in relation to post employment that:
 - (i) a public leader shall, within six months after the termination of his service, not seek or engage in any private employment that he was associated with when he was a public leader or when he had a supervisory role in the post of public leader, and for which he had direct management of;
 - (ii) a public leader shall not act, after he leaves a public office, in such a manner as to bring the service to ridicule or take improper advantage of his previous office, so that the possibilities may be minimised by:

- (aa) allowing prospects of outside employment to create a real, potential or apparent conflict of interest for public leaders while in a public office;
- (bb) obtaining preferential treatment or privileged access to Government after leaving a public office;
- (cc) taking personal advantage of information obtained in the course of official duties and responsibilities until it becomes generally available to the public; and
- (dd) using a public office to unfair advantages in obtaining opportunities outside employment.

(2) A public leader who refuses, makes false declaration or fails to comply with the requirements under subsection (1) breaches the code of ethics for public leaders and is liable to the actions specified under section 8.

Declaration of standards as to ethics

7.–(1) The President may, by Notice published in the Gazette, declare requirements and rules regarding ethical standards that are to be complied with by public leaders.

(2) A Notice under this section shall not come into operation until it is approved by resolution of the National Assembly.

PART III

CODE OF ETHICS APPLICABLE TO ALL PUBLIC LEADERS

Relationship between this Part and purpose of the Constitution Act No. 5 of 2001 s. 3

8. The provisions of this Part shall constitute part of the Code of Ethics for Public Leaders according to the Constitution and breach of the code shall result in any of the following actions:

to disclose
pecuniary interest
to forum
Act No.
4 of 2016 s. 66

13.-(1) A public leader shall not speak in the Cabinet, National Assembly, Local Government Council or its Committee, official forum or part of it as the case may be, in any matter in which he has a direct pecuniary interest unless-

- (a) he has disclosed the nature of that interest to the Cabinet, the National Assembly, the Local Government Council or Committee or such other forum or part of it; and
- (b) the direct pecuniary interest for which the public leader has disclosed under paragraph (a) serves or safeguards public interest.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the separately owned assets of the spouse or child of a public leader shall be deemed to constitute an interest for disclosure by him.

Restriction of public leaders to enter into contracts
Act No. 4 of 2016 s. 67

14. A public leader shall not, whether by himself, or through a family member or any company or association to which he is affiliated, enter into or take part in any contract with the Government or entity of the Government thereof unless the Government or entity for which the contract is being entered into is not under the direct management of that leader.

[s. 13A]

Declaration of interest in Government contract
Act No. 4 of 2016 s. 68

15.—(1) Where a public leader has an interest in a contract that is made, or is proposed to be made, by the Government, and has not made a sufficient declaration under subsection (4) in relation to the contract, the public leader shall as soon as practicable, make a declaration of his interest in relation to the contract, specifying the nature and extent of his interest.

(2) Where-

(a) immediately before the commencement of this Act, a public leader has an interest in a contract that has been made by the Government; and

(b) the contract is not completely performed by all parties within thirty days after the commencement of this Act, the public leader shall, within thirty days after the commencement of this Act, declare the interest in accordance with this section.

(3) The interests of the spouse or of the child of a public leader in relation to the Government contract shall be deemed to be the interest of the public leader.

(4) A declaration for the purposes of this section shall be made to the Commissioner in writing.

(5) A declaration by a public leader that-

(a) states that he has an interest in a specified body corporate or firm;

(b) specifies the nature and extent of the interest;

(c) where the interest is a shareholding or partnership, specifies the proportion of the ownership of the company or firm represented by the shareholding or partnership; and

- (d) states that he is to be regarded as interested in any contract which may, after the date of the notice, be made with the Government by that body corporate or firm, shall be a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any contract so made unless, at the time the question of confirming or entering into any contract is first taken into consideration by the Government, the extent of his interest in the body corporate or firm is greater than is stated in the declaration.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a public leader has an interest in contract if-

- (a) he will derive any material benefit, whether direct or indirect, from the contract; or
 (b) one party to the contract is a firm or body corporate and he has a material interest, whether direct or indirect, in the firm or body corporate.

(7) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (6), a public leader shall not be considered to have a material interest in a body corporate by reason only that-

- (a) he holds debentures of the body corporate; or

Procuring information and attendance of witnesses
Act No.
5 of 2001 s. 7

27.–(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Tribunal may require any person who, in its opinion, is able to give any information relating to any matter relevant to any enquiry being conducted by it to furnish it with any such information and to produce any document, paper or thing which may be in the possession or under the control of that person and may, by order under the hand of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman, require any such person to attend before the Tribunal at a time and place specified in such order and be examined on oath or to produce any such document, paper or thing.

(2) Where the Tribunal orders any person to be examined on oath, any member may administer such oath.

(3) An order made under this section shall be served on the person to whom it is directed by a person holding office under the Tribunal or a police officer in the manner prescribed for the service of summons on a witness in civil proceedings before a court of law.

(4) Where a person to whom an order under this section is directed does not attend at the time and place mentioned therein, the Tribunal may, upon being satisfied that the order was duly served or that the person to whom the order is directed willfully avoids service, issue a warrant under the hand of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman to apprehend such person and to bring him before the Tribunal at a time and place specified in the warrant and a warrant issued under this section shall be executed by a police officer.

(5) Where a person is arrested in pursuance of a warrant issued under this section and is not brought before the Tribunal within twenty-four hours of his arrest or earlier released by order of the Tribunal on his undertaking to attend at a time and place specified by it, he shall forthwith be taken before a resident magistrate and the resident magistrate shall-

- (a) if such person enters into a suitable recognisance of his appearance before the Tribunal, release him from custody; or
- (b) order such person to be detained in custody until such time as he can be brought before the Tribunal.

(6) When any person is required by the Tribunal to attend before it for the purposes of this section, such person shall be entitled to the same fee, allowance and expenses as if he were a witness before a court of law and, for the purpose of this subsection, the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman shall have the powers of a court to fix or disallow the amount of any such fee, allowance or expenses.

(7) For the avoidance of doubts it is hereby declared that this section shall apply whether or not the person concerned is a public officer in respect of whose conduct the Tribunal has jurisdiction to enquire and whether or not such documents, papers or things are in the custody or under the control of any government ministry, division, or department, or the party or a parastatal organisation.

28. Subject to this Act, a person who gives or is required to give information by, or ordered to attend to give evidence or to produce any document, paper or thing before the Commissioner or the Tribunal, shall be entitled in respect of such information, evidence, document, paper or thing to the same rights and privileges as witnesses have in the High Court.

Tribunal
Acts Nos.
5 of 2001 s. 7
4 of 2016 s. 73

29.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a Tribunal for the purposes of this Act shall consist of three persons appointed by the President, one of them being appointed from amongst persons who hold or have held the office of Judge of Appeal or of Judge of the High Court, while the other two shall be appointed upon advice by the Commissioner.

(2) A member of the Tribunal shall hold office for a term of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for another term.

(3) Where a Tribunal has been constituted under subsection (4) of section 25, the Commissioner may commission it to investigate further allegations received by him under this section whether against the public leader concerned or another public leader.

(4) The President shall appoint one Member of the Tribunal as Chairman.

(5) Where a member of a Tribunal becomes unwilling to act or dies, the President may appoint another member in his place.

(6) A Tribunal shall conduct its inquiry in public, save that it may exclude representatives of the press or any or all other persons if it considers necessary so to do for the preservation of order, for the due conduct of the inquiry or for any other reason.

(7) A Tribunal may engage the services of such technical advisors or other experts as it considers necessary for the proper conduct of the inquiry.

(8) A Tribunal may request assistance from other investigative organs, including the Police, the Anti-Corruption Bureau, the Commission for Human Rights and Good Governance and those organs shall be empowered to provide information to the Tribunal and to conduct investigations on behalf of the Ethics Secretariat.

(9) In its report, the Tribunal may make recommendations as to administrative actions, criminal prosecutions or other further actions to be taken as it thinks fit.

(10) Where the Tribunal considers that an allegation was malicious, frivolous or vexatious, or that the particulars accompanying it are insufficient to allow a proper investigation to proceed, it shall say so in its report.

Cap. 32
