- (j) consider TANROADS annual reports and accounts;
- (k) evaluate TANROADS performance.

PART III

ROAD CLASSIFICATION AND DECLARATION

Minister may classify and reclassify public roads

11.-(1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, classify or reclassify public roads for the purposes of this Act and may define the boundaries of, any class of roads, according to the criteria specified under section 12.

(2) In exercising the powers conferred by subsection (1), the Minister shall-

- (a) be guided by functional or administrative criteria; and
- (b) consult the Minister responsible for local government authority in case of classification of district roads.

(3) The Minister shall have powers to determine such other width on a classified road from the centre of any public road.

Classes of public roads

12.-(1) The public road network in Mainland Tanzania is hereby classified as national roads and district roads.

(2) A national road shall include-

- (a) a trunk road which is primarily-
 - (i) a national route that links two or more regional headquarters; or
 - (ii) an international through route that links regional headquarters and another major or important city or town or major port outside Tanzania.

(b) a regional road which is a secondary national road that connects-

- (i) a trunk road and district or regional headquarters;
- (ii) a regional headquarters and district headquarters.

(3) The district road shall include-

(a) a collector road which is-

- (i) a road linking a district headquarters and a division centre;
- (ii) a road linking a division centre with any other division centre;
- (iii) a road linking a division centre with ward centre;
- (iv) a road within urban area carrying through traffic which predominantly originates from and destined out of the town and links with either regional or a trunk road;

- (b) a feeder road which shall be-
 - (i) a road within urban area that links a collector road and other minor road within the vicinity and collects or distributes traffic between residential, industrial and principal business centres of the town;
 - (ii) a village access road linking wards to other wards centres;
- (c) a community road within the village or a road which links a village to a village.
- (4) The Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette prescribe the width of the classified roads specified under subsections (1), (2), and (3).

Declaration of public road

13.-(1) A road set out in the First Schedule to this Act is hereby declared to be a public road for purposes of this Act.

(2) The Minister may, taking into consideration any road declaration, road closure, diversion, turning, and enlargement, amend the First Schedule to this Act.

Plans of public roads

14.-(1) The Minister shall cause a plan or survey to be prepared of all public roads declared under this Act and shall, from time to time, cause any deviation or alteration made in any existing public road to be added to the plan or survey.

(2) The plans or survey shall be authenticated by a professional surveyor or other public officer authorised by the Minister.

(3) The authenticated plans or survey shall be submitted to the Director of surveys and mapping for registration.

Minister may give notice of construction of a road

15. Where it appears to the Minister that it is desirable and necessary in the public interest to construct a new road or to widen, deviate or re-align an existing road or road of access as a road under this Act, the Minister shall publish a notice in the Gazette showing the situation and other particulars of the centre line of the proposed road.

Compensation for acquired land
Cap. 118
Cap. 113
Cap. 114

16. Where it becomes necessary for the road authority to acquire a land owned by any person for purposes of this Act, the owner of the land shall be entitled to compensation for any development on that land in accordance with the Land Acquisition Act, Land Act, Village Land Act and any other written law.

Private roads

17.—(1) The road authority may authorise the establishment of a private road within the area of its jurisdiction or declare any existing road to be a private road subject to conditions as it may prescribe.

(2) Except where the road authority declares otherwise, a private road shall be for the exclusive use of the person authorised to establish such a road.

(3) Where a public road is inaccessible or becomes impassable, the road authority may order the owner of a private road, subject to conditions as may be prescribed to make road temporarily open to the general public until the time as the public road is accessible or becomes passable again.

(4) A person who fails to comply with an order under subsection (3) commits an offence.

(5) A damage to a private road caused by any additional traffic as a result of such road having been opened to the general public under subsection (3), shall be made good by the road authority having jurisdiction over such road.

PART IV

EXECUTION OF ROAD WORKS

Power to enter and survey

18.—(1) The road authority or an authorised officer or surveyor after consultation with the relevant authorities may, at all reasonable times and with proper assistants, enter upon the land owned by any person for the purpose of ascertaining whether it is advisable in the public interest to construct a road on or over such land and for that purpose to run trial lines, make surveys and fix any post, stone, mark or object on such land.

(2) In exercising the powers under subsection (1), the road authority, authorised officer or surveyor shall give at least fourteen days notice in writing of his intention to do so.

Power of road authority to take stones and materials

19.—(1) The road authority may, with necessary vehicles and equipment after consultation with relevant authorities, enter upon the land owned by any person in any place not less than fifty meters from any dwelling-house, and on, through and over such land construct a passage way for such vehicles, and, may collect from such land any stones, sand, earth, gravel or other material which may be required for the purpose of opening, making or repairing any public road in the vicinity.

(2) The road authority may acquire quarries for the purpose of developing and maintaining road in any area under its jurisdiction and the Minister responsible for finance after consultation with the Minister responsible for minerals may exempt the road authority from paying any levy, royalty and fees for licence.

(3) In exercising the powers vested under this section, the road authority shall give to the owner of the land notice in writing at least fourteen days before entry on such land.

Power to cut and remove trees

20. The road authority may, after consultation with relevant authorities, enter upon any land adjacent to any public road for the purpose of removing the whole or any part of any tree which overhangs such road, obstructs or interferes with the light from any public lamp, or endangers or obstructs the passage of vehicles or which grows in a way that causes damage to such road or interferes with its proper performance or maintenance.

Power of road authority to make ditches etc

21. The road authority may make and keep open all ditches, gutters, drains or watercourses, and may make and lay drains, culverts, tunnels or bridges as it shall deem necessary for the draining, reservation, improvement, repair or construction of any public road in and through any lands or grounds adjacent or lying near such public road, provided that drain, tunnel or culvert shall not be opened into private property in such manner which may cause damage or erosion on such property.

Power to place stones, etc., on public roads

22. The road authority may place any stone, gravel, wood or other matter or thing upon any public road and may allow the same to remain there during the time such public road is under repair, or for such time before the repairs are commenced and after the repairs are completed, as may be necessary for facilitating the making of such repairs, or for preventing damage to such recently repaired public road, and shall take due and reasonable precaution for preventing damage or injury to persons, vehicles or animals passing along such public road.

Removal of obstructions and encroachments

23.—(1) The road authority may give notice in writing to any person obstructing or encroaching on any public road to remove or abate such obstruction.

(2) Where a person to whom notice has been given under subsection (1), fails to comply with such notice within a prescribed time or if there be any doubt as to the proper person to whom such notice should be given, the road authority may, after affixing a notice of its intention on or near the obstruction or encroachment, cause the obstruction or encroachment to be removed or abated.

(3) For purposes of giving effect to subsection (2), the road authority may enter into any house, garden, enclosure or other premises with such instruments for the removal or abatement of any obstruction or encroachment and may recover the costs occasioned from the person failing to remove or abate the same.

Preventing soil, from being washed onto roads

24.—(1) The road authority may give notice to the owner of any lands abutting upon any public road, requiring him, within twenty-eight days after the service of the notice, to fence off, channel or embark the land in order to prevent soil or refuse from such land from falling upon, or being washed or carried into the public road, or into any sewer or gully.

(2) Where a person served with a notice under subsection (1) fails to comply with such notice, the road authority may cause the work to be done and shall recover the costs incurred from the owner.

Owner of adjoining lands to have bridge over drain

25.—(1) Where the owner of any premises or any land adjoining any public road, by the side of which a drain has been made, requires a means of access to such premises or land from such road, he may place or construct over such drain a bridge, platform or culvert in a manner which does not interfere with the efficiency of such drain in accordance with section 35.

(2) The road authority may require a person having access to any premises or land contrary to the provisions of subsection (1) to build a bridge, platform or culvert for access and if he fails to do so within a reasonable time, the road authority may cause the same to be done and recover the costs incurred from the owner of such premises or land.

Erection of temporary premises

26.—(1) This Part shall not prevent a public officer duly authorised in that behalf from making temporary use of any part of any public road for the public service, nor shall it prevent the road authority from granting its licence to any person or persons for the erection of temporary fences and enclosures upon any public roads for the purpose of building, pulling down or repairing their houses and other buildings or for the erection of temporary decorations.

(2) The length and breadth of enclosures under subsection (1) shall be described in such licence, and the licensee shall ensure sufficient room for vehicles to pass, and immediately after sunset during all the time that the enclosure continues and if so required in such licence by the road authority, place and keep a sufficient light or some conspicuous sign upon the premises till sunrise.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence.

Temporary closure of new public roads after construction

27. The road authority may prohibit a person from riding or driving any kind of animal or vehicle on any public road for a period as it shall consider necessary, not exceeding one month after that road has been constructed or repaired and a person who willfully disobeys that order, commits an offence.

Construction
of special roads and restriction of traffic

28.—(1) The road authority may construct or maintain a public road or part of a public road restricted to the exclusive use of any specified kinds of traffic or to traffic moving in one direction only or to construct and maintain adjacent to any public road a track or passage which, for purposes of this Act, shall also be deemed to be a public road for the exclusive use of pedestrians or ridden or driven animals.

(2) In exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (1), the road authority may give orders prohibiting the use of any public road by any class or classes of traffic, and otherwise regulating or restricting the manner in which any public road or part of a public road is to be used, and shall give notice of such orders by the erection of traffic signs or in such other manner as in the circumstances may be reasonable.

(3) The construction or provision of any public road, track or passage specially prepared or intended for exclusive or restricted use, may in itself be deemed sufficient notice to the public of the orders of the road authority as to the use of such public road, track or passage.

(4) A person who fails to comply with an order made by the road authority under subsection (2), or uses a public road in contravention of any order without the permission of the road authority or without reasonable excuse commits an offence.

Use of road reserve
Act No.
4 of 2021 s. 31

29.—(1) The road reserve is exclusively for the use of road development and expansion or any other road related activities.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), road authority may, in writing, permit a person or authority to use the road reserve temporarily under its jurisdiction for utilities such as placing of public lighting, telegraph, adverts, telephone, electric supplies and posts, drains, sewers and mains, only in cases where such use or uses do not hinder any future use of the road reserve by the road authority.

(3) The authorised user of the road reserve shall be allowed to use the road reserve, upon the terms and conditions as the road authority may impose and shall be bound to remove such utilities and their related developments and make good the area at his own cost without any compensation in case the said road reserve is required for road expansion, development or maintenance or any other road related activities by the road authority.

(4) An authorised user of the road reserve which involves or is likely to cause damage to the road, road furniture, road asset or the surrounding environment shall-

- (a) in case the damage is done to the road, road furniture or road asset, restore the damaged road, road furniture or road asset to its original state and condition in accordance with the road technical specifications and standards;
- (b) in case the damage is done to the surrounding environment of the road reserve, restore it to its previous state and condition in accordance with the environmental engineering practise authorised by the Ministry responsible for environment.

(5) Where an agreement provides for special arrangement relating to the implementation of this provision, and the said arrangement has been approved by the Cabinet, the application of the provisions of this section shall not prejudice the implementation of such agreement.

Protection of environment

30. The road authority entrusted with the duties of developing, managing and maintaining the public roads under its jurisdiction, shall comply with the prescribed guidelines, regulations or any other written law relating to environmental protection and waste disposal.

PART V

ROAD SAFETY

- Road furniture 31.—(1) The road authority shall ensure that, the necessary road furnitures are erected on the public roads under its jurisdiction as may be prescribed in the regulations or any other written law.
- (2) A person who damages, removes or obscures a road furniture commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine of not less than two hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term of not exceeding one year or both.
- (3) A person who fails to comply with a message conveyed by a road furniture commits an offence.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), the Minister may by regulations exempt particular persons from complying with the provisions of subsection (3).
- Speed limit 32.—(1) The road authority shall prescribe speed limits in respect of all roads or sections thereof as the Minister may approve.
- (2) A person who fails to comply with speed limits as prescribed under subsection (1) commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine of not less than two hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term of not exceeding one year or both.
- Safety of road users 33.—(1) The road authority shall ensure to the safety of road users during the design, construction, maintenance and operation of a public road by providing side walks, overhead bridges, zebra crossings and other matters related thereto.
- (2) The road users and pedestrians in particular shall use public roads in a manner that does not pose safety hazard to themselves, vehicles or any other road users.
- (3) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of this section, commits an offence.

Driving on public roads 34.—(1) A driving and use of motorised or non-motorised vehicle on a public road shall be as prescribed in the regulations.

(2) A person who contravenes the provision of subsection (1) commits an offence.

PART VI ROADS OF ACCESS

Application to construct roads of access 35.—(1) Where the owner of land, in respect of land situated in relation to a public road which is passable for vehicle traffic or to railway station, does not have reasonable access to such land, that owner may apply to the road authority for a permit to construct a road of access over any land lying between his land and the public road or railway station.

(2) An application submitted under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a sketch or plan and made on the form as prescribed in the Second Schedule.

(3) Where an applicant for a permit to construct a road of access is unable to make a sketch or plan of such road without entering upon private lands over which the road is to pass, he may apply to the road authority for permission to enter such lands and any permission so granted shall be binding on all interested parties in relation to such lands.

Notice to be served on holders of lands to be affected 36.—(1) Upon receipt of an application under section 35, the road authority shall cause notice of such application to be given to the owner of any land over which the proposed road is to pass, calling upon him to show cause, within one month from the date of such notice, why the application should not be granted.

(2) The road authority shall upon receipt of any representations under subsection (1) fix a day for hearing the application and after such hearing may grant or refuse a permit to construct such road.

(3) Where a permit is granted under subsection (2), the road authority may attach such conditions as it may deem fit including the width of such road and the amount of compensation payable by the applicant for any crops or permanent improvements likely to be damaged or destroyed during construction.

Right of way over road of access

37.—(1) Where an application for a road of access has been granted, the applicant, his successor in title, and any person lawfully going to or from the applicant's land shall have a right at all times to such use of the road.

(2) A road of access constructed pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be kept in a good and efficient state of maintenance by the applicant to the satisfaction of the road authority having jurisdiction in the area where such road of access is situated.

(3) Where the owner of land over which such road of access is situated or any other person authorised by the road authority uses such road, he shall pay to the applicant a proportionate share of the cost of such maintenance as the road authority may determine.

Power of road authority to cancel or alter road of access

38.—(1) The road authority may, on a reasonable cause, order the cancellation or alteration of the alignment of a road of access after giving notice of fourteen days in writing to any person who is likely to be affected by such order.

(2) A person affected by the order issued under subsection (1), may lodge within fourteen days an objection to the road authority and such objection shall be heard in a manner provided for under the Regulations.

Prohibition of certain classes of traffic

39. When it appears to the road authority that the prohibition of any particular traffic or class of traffic on a road of access is desirable in the public interest, the road authority may, by notice published in the Gazette, restrict the use of such road to such traffic or class of traffic only.

Appeals

40. A person aggrieved by the decision of the road authority as to-

- (a) an application to construct a road of access;
- (b) the cancellation or alteration of alignment of any road of access;
- (c) the apportionment of the cost of maintenance of a road of access, may appeal to the Minister within sixty days or any period as the Minister may determine.

PART VII

RESTRICTIONS ON USE OF ROADS

Restriction of traffic during repairs

41.-(1) Where the road authority is satisfied that traffic on any public road for the management of which it is responsible should be restricted or prohibited by reason of works of repair or reconstruction being required or being in progress on the road or for the purpose of preserving or protecting the surface of the road, it may temporarily restrict or prohibit the use of that road or any part thereof by vehicles of any particular class or description to such extent and subject to conditions as it may consider necessary.

(2) The road authority shall, give reasonable public notice of its intention to restrict or prohibit traffic on a road or part thereof.

(3) The road authority shall have power to regulate or stop traffic by issuing warnings and directions either by written or printed notice displayed at some conspicuous place or by word of mouth or by erection of barriers or otherwise.

(4) A prohibition or restriction of traffic imposed under this section shall not, without the approval of the Minister, continue in force for a longer period than three months and notice of such approval shall be published in the Gazette.

(5) A person who uses or permits the use of a vehicle in contravention of any restriction or prohibition imposed under this section shall be liable in the case of a first conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month and in the case of a second or subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

Regulation of maximum weight, speed and dimensions

42.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other written law regulating the maximum weight, speed and dimensions to be carried on any public road, it shall be lawful for the purpose of safeguarding the safety of the public or of preserving the condition of a road, for the road authority to fix limit to the maximum weight, speed or dimensions of vehicles which may lawfully be driven or hauled over any part of a road.

(2) In exercising the powers under subsection (1), a road authority shall place on or near such part of a road, conspicuous notices denoting the maximum speed or to the effect that, such part of the road is unsuited to carry traffic in excess of the weight specified in the notice.

(3) A person who hauls or drives or is responsible for hauling or driving over such part of a public road a vehicle at a speed or of a weight in excess of that specified in the notice without the consent in writing of the road authority commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a penalty as prescribed in the Road Traffic Act.

Cap. 168

Notice to remove obstruction

43.—(1) Where the road authority is satisfied that it is necessary to impose restrictions with respect to any land at or near any corner or bend in a road for the prevention of danger arising from obstruction to the view of persons using the road, road authority may serve notice-

- (a) upon the owner or occupier of the land directing him to alter the height or character of any wall (not being part of a wall of a permanent structure), a fence or hedge thereon so as to cause it to conform with any requirements specified in the notice; or

- (b) upon every owner of the land restraining them either absolutely or subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notice, from permitting any building, wall, fence or hedge to be erected or planted on the land provided that-
- (i) there shall be annexed to any notice served under this section a plan or sketch showing the land to which the notice relates;
 - (ii) a notice restraining the erection of any building upon land situated within urban authority shall not be served except with the consent of such authority;
 - (iii) the owner of any land shall not be restrained from making any repairs or reconstruction which do not create new obstructions of the kind specified in this subsection.

(2) Restrictions imposed by notice under this section shall become effective upon the service of the notice to the person to whom it was served until withdrawn by the road authority; and the restrictions shall be binding upon any successor in title to the owner of the land to which the restrictions relate.

(3) A person whom a notice has been served under subsection (1) may, within fourteen days after receipt of the notice, lodge an objection in writing to the road authority serving a notice objecting to any restrictions imposed by the notice.

(4) A person dissatisfied with the decision of the road authority on an objection lodged to it may refer the matter by way of a civil suit to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) A person upon whom a notice is served under this section shall have power, notwithstanding anything in any conveyance or lease or other agreement, to do the things as may be necessary to comply with the requirements of the notice.

(6) A person who fails to comply with a notice issued under this section commits an offence and on conviction, shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or both.

(7) Where a notice has been served upon any person under this section and that person fails to comply with the notice, the road authority may, with the consent of that person do on his behalf anything necessary for complying with the notice.

(8) A person who suffers any loss or expense reasonably arising from or incurred in the course of complying with a notice served under this section, shall be entitled, within twelve months after service of the notice, to recover from the road authority serving the notice, compensation for such loss or expense.

(9) Compensation under subsection (8) shall be at the rates as may be specified in any law for the time being in force for that purpose and where the law does not exist, at the rates as the Minister may specify by notice in the Gazette.
